

Teacher Creativity Workshop

Looking for some fresh ideas to liven up your classes? Then come along to the British Council Teacher Creativity Workshop at the MPI-Bell Centre of English on Wednesday 22nd July from 2.30-4.00pm.

This 90-minute workshop consists of a range of activities using art as a trigger for the development of 21st century skills, rich language and creative thinking. Activities are designed to generate high levels of personal response from students.

British Council is delighted to be the strategic creative education partner for the Prudential Eye programme in 2015. Our partnership will continue to deliver an interactive creative education programme that engages with, and inspires, both students and teachers.

The programme promotes creativity through art and English. Using selected, age-appropriate works from the Prudential Eye programme and British Council Collection, we aim to produce a resource that will have a long-term legacy for students and teachers.

The Teacher Resource Pack has been designed and developed by the British Council, as part of the Creative Education Programme, in association with the Prudential Eye programme. The Pack includes activities appropriate for an age range of 13 years old to adults, designed to stimulate a range of skills including viewing, visual literacy, speaking, writing, reading and role-playing. The Resource Packs are linked to the secondary school curriculum but all activities are flexible and may be adapted for different age-groups and educational context.

These resources will support a programme of free Teacher Creativity Workshops. The workshop developed and delivered by the Teacher Development Unit will be scheduled as part of the Bell Teacher Campus at Macao Polytechnic Institute. Participants will receive a PDF certificate of attendance by email following the event.

Please note that this workshop is most suited to secondary and tertiary teachers, though primary teachers are also welcome to attend.
